

FULL-LENGTH PROCEEDINGS PAPERS GUIDELINES

1. Deadline/Editing Process: Visit the conference website to ensure your manuscript is prepared and submitted before the deadline set by the Organizing Committee. Familiarize yourself with the editing process.
2. Title: Use up to 20 words for clarity.
3. Author(s): Provide full names (name and surname) of authors, underlining the surname for correct indexing.
4. Affiliations: Include town/city and country for each author.
5. Corresponding Author: Provide name, address, email, and telephone. The corresponding author must ensure consent from all co-authors and correct spelling of their details (names, surnames, ORCIDs, and affiliations).
6. ORCID: Supply ORCID for each author, ensuring details on ORCID pages match the manuscript.
7. Abstract: Provide an unstructured abstract in one paragraph (maximum 200 words).
8. Keywords: Include up to five keywords, separated by commas.
9. Main Text: Ensure the manuscript length is between 500 and 1,200 words. For research papers, structure the text into "Introduction," "Methodology," "Results and Discussion," and "Conclusion." For reviews or invited talks, the structure can be freely defined.
10. Acknowledgments: Clearly mention any help or funding received.
11. Conflict of Interest Statement: Declare any conflicts of interest, or state "None to declare."
12. References: Limit references to 10, formatted per the provided template.
13. Table or Figure: Include either one Table or one Figure, with a descriptive legend. Multi-panelling is allowed for Figures if the legend is detailed enough.
